Tucked along a charming, tree-lined street near schools and downtown Cashmere, this classic home blends timeless character with fresh updates. All bedrooms are conveniently located on the main floor, while the unfinished basement offers exciting potential for added living space or extra bedrooms. Recent upgrades include a new electrical panel, updated wiring and outlets, new lighting in the kitchen and living room, LVP flooring throughout, fresh interior paint, butcher block countertops, and new kitchen fixtures. The fenced backyard is perfect for pets, play, or gardening, and the location puts parks, shops, and local dining just minutes away. A standout opportunity in one of Cashmere's most preferred neighborhoods.
